

World Food Day Dinner Saturday Oct. 18, 6pm

First Congregational Church
2801 Lomas Blvd NE, ABQ., NM

Free and open to everyone!
Celebrate great locally produced and cooked food, learn about food security and links with environmental stewardship, and enjoy community!

Evelyn Salce Curtis Losack

Guest Speaker

Evelyn Salce Curtis Losack is a music teacher, writer, photographer and farmer. The story of her Corrales community told (and pictured) in If There's Squash Bugs in Heaven, I Ain't Staying: Learning to Make the Perfect Pie, Sing When You Need To, and Find the Way Home With Farmer Evelyn. Spragg-Braude worked for many years as a photographer for the Albuquerque Tribune. Her many works also include a portfolio focused on Bulgaria's Roma community and the book To Walk in Beauty: A Navajo Family's Journey Home.

Co-sponsored by OXFAM Action Corps and NM Interfaith Power and Light

